Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangthan nominated teachers to undergo a special B. P. Ed. (summer course) in three semesters in Lakshmi Bai National College of Physical Education (LNCPE) Gwalior. The Board of Governors of Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan at its meeting held on 21.12.1988 decided that Yoga should be taught as a separate discipline and as such it would not be necessary for Yoga teachers to undergo the course in Physical Education. However out of 95 Yoga teachers who have since acquired the B.P. Ed. qualicafition, 76 Yoga teachers have given their option to be absorbed as PET's. The question of formal regularisation of these employees as PET's would be placed before the Board of Governors of the Sangathan. In this context, the Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan has found that the Yoga teachers who have not opted for acquiring B.P. Ed. qualification fell into the following categories.

(i) Graduates without Yoga training for a minimum of nine months.

(ii) Under-gaduates who had the requisite Yoga qualification.

(iii) Under-graduates who had not had the requisite Yoga qualification.

The Sangathan has decided that the above categories of teachers should acquire the qualifications of Graduation and/or Yoga training to be regularised as Yoga teachers. Until they acquire these qualifications they would be continued as ad-hoc Yoga teachers.
